To the READER.

Earning being a thing of so general and univer Use, there cannot be too much Care to breed Children to it: And though there have been many Bo already of this kind, yet, I hope, this may not thought unnecessary, it being in so plain and ease a thoo, that it may suit with the meanest Capacit and it may be, there may be somethings in it, that there have not yet taken notice of.

I have here set down the most common Words tha could meet with in the Bible and elsewhere, from One Six and Seven Syllables, and they are both whole a divided into their distinct syllables, for the better and understanding of Learners; I have also add many Proper Names in the same Method.

And because I have observed that it doth much pale and confound Strangers and young Beginners, there are so many Words in our English Tongue, where written and Printed very differently from what the are commonly pronounced, I have here endeavoured show the difference in most of the Words I could think and the ingenious may from bence judge of others.

I have also added a Table of Words, which he the same sound in the pronouncing of them, and, are very different in their Spelling, Sense, and Pron siation.

Hereunto also is annexed the signification of most our English Christian Names; together with the of our Stops and Points in Reading and Writing, also some Copies of mixt Secretary, Italian and Rom Hands, engraven on Copper, for the Learner to pract by; with several other things: Which I hope may helpful to Youth in the speedy and exact Reading a Writing the English Tongue; Which is the aim and fire of,

Abbreviations on Vowels.

ā, an, am; ē, en, em; ī, im; ō, on, om; ū, un, um.

As for Example;

That Comonwealth is in dager where Wildo is not predominat.

A Vowel hath a perfect found by it felf without any other Letter; as [A] wise Man [I] think ough to be valued, [O!] that there were much.

The found of Consonants is as followeth:

b c d f g j k l m en pe cu ar es tee yu ex yi zed

n p q r s t v x y z

Copfonants without Vowels will make no found a all. As for Example, in gld, blfs, ing, ird, plc but if you add a Vowel to each of them, then the nake by adding a to the first glad, e to the second less, i to the third sing, o to the fourth lord, n to he fift! pluck.

A Confonant between two Vowels is usually joyned to the latter, as be-fore, re-ward

When a Consonant is doubled in the middle of a word, as Ladder, differ, one Letter is joyned to he first Syllable, and the other to the latter, thus, ad-der, dif-fer.

And it is also, if two Consonants come between wo Vowels, as in sel-dom, trum-pet, because id and mp are not proper to begin any word.

But if three Consonants, which are proper to bein a word, come between two Vowels, then the Consonants must not be separated, but must be joind to the Vowel following, as con-strain-ed, not consain-ed, nor con-strain-ed, because str are proper to begin a word.

These Consonants of two Letters, may also begin yords, as dr, dw, sl, fr, gr, pl, pr, sc, sh, sl, sp, st, k, fm, fn, fq, fw, th, tr, tw, wh, wr.

There are also Consonants of three Letters, with thich words may be begun, ser, phr, str, sp, thr, thr,

hw, fpl,

Dipthongs are proper or improper. The proer Dipthongs are eight, ai, ei, oi, au, eu, ou, ee, oo, the improper Dipthongs are fix, ay, ey, oy, aw, ew,
w. They differ not much in found, but differ vey much in writing; for the proper Dipthongs are o be used in the beginning and middle, as in Oister, air, air, either; but when you have the same bunds in the ending of a word, you must write, ay, y, oy, as may, prey, joy.

On the Alphabet of Letters there are some that have made these Observations.

THA I there are seven mute r dumb Letters, which are B, C, D, G, P, Q.
T, because they are forced to borrow the Vowel E at the end to help the found.

There are eight Semivowels, or half Vowels, mamely, F,L,M,N,R,S,X, Z, all which begin their found with E, and end in themselves.

M. P. in his Vocal Organ distinguishes the several Letters thus: B, s, m, p, ph, w, are Lip Con-so-nants, Ce, ch, ge, je, s, sh, z, are Teeth Consonants, d, l, n, t, th, are Tongue-Consor, s, c, g, k, q, x, are Pala. Consonants, gh, m, ng, y, rare Throat-Consonants.

It is observed by some that there are eighteen Dipthongs in our English Tongue as you may see in the words subjoyn'd, which words are most of them either derived from the Hebren, or have affined and in now, know, however, and with the Latin.

Aa, as in Baal, Isaac. ai, Fair, despair. au, Land, appland ea, Ease, please. ee, Free, bleed. ei, Receive, weight. eo, Jeopardy, Geometry, George. eu, Rheum, Eustace. ic, Field, friend. oa, Boat, Goal. oc, Toe, shoe, Phoenix, forlicity. oi, Void, joyn. oo, Good, food. ou, Bloud, gourd.

ua, Guard, quake. ue, Guerdon, quench.

ui, Quire, build.

uo, Quoth.

There are also these ten Tripthongs, which contain three Vowels sounded together in one word, as eau, in Beauty, ien, in lieu, adieu, view: uai, in quail, acquaint: uee, in Queen: uea, in quease, jqueak, queam: uoi, in quoit, quoif: aw, in Law, Bawd, Daw: ew, in dew, n w, stew: ow, in now know how.

II. Thou halt not make unto the felf and Graben Image, nor the likeness of any thing that is Peaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath or that is in the Mater under the Earth: Tho shalt not how down the felf to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord the God am a jealou God, visiting the Iniquity of the Fathers upor the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew Herry unto Thousands of them that love me, and keeping Commandments.

III. Thou thalt not take the Pame of the Loed thy God in vain; for the Loed will not how him guiltless that taketh his Pame in vain.

IV: Remember the Sabbath-day to keep to holy, Six days that thou labour, and do all the mock, but the Seventh-day is the Sabbath of the Locd thy God; in it thou thalt not do any work. Thou, nor thy Daughter, thy Pan Troant, nor thy Paughter, thy Pan Troant, nor thy Paid-ferbant, nor thy Tattle, nor thy Stranger that is within thy Gates; for in the Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and resed the Sebath-day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it,

V. Ponour thy Nather and thy Pother, that thy days may be long upon the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou thalt not kill.

VII. Thou thalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou thalt not Steal.

IX. Thou thale not hear falle witness against

X. Thou walt not covet thy Peighbours House, Abou walt not covet thy Peighbours Wife, Por his Pan-Servant, nor his Paid-Servant, nor his Dr, not his Als, nor any thing that is thy Peighbours.

PSALM, I.

B Lef-sed is the Man that walk-eth not in the coun-sel of the un god-ly, nor stand-eth in the way of Sin-ners, nor sit-teth in the seat of the scorn-sul.

But his de-light is in the Law of the Lord, and in his Law doth he me-di-tate day and night.

And he shall be like a Tree plant-ed by the Rivers of Wa-ter, that bringeth forth his fruit in his sea-son; his Leaf al-so shall not wither, and what-so-e-ver he doth shall pros-per.

The un-god-ly are not fo, but are like the Chaff which the Wind dri veth a-way.

There-fore the Un-god-ly shall not cand in the judg-ment, nor Sinners in the Con-gre-ga-ti-on of the Righ-te-ous.

For the Lord know-eth the way of the Righ-te-ous, but the way of the Un-god-ly shall pe-rish.

NoT those that talk, but such as walk Pure in God's Laws; not those Who turn aside, but do abide

In them, are bleft and chose.

2. Not they that know, but such as do His Testaments are blest;

That keep his Word, that feek the Lord With Hearts that cannot rest.

3. There is no Sin, that these live in,

They walk in holy way, They are intent and diligent His Precepts to obey.

4. Unfeignedly I wish and cry, Othat my ways were such,

That thou would'st lead, where I should tread,

David's Lamentation over Saul and Jonathan, 2 Sami. 1.19.

THE Beauty of Ifrael is stain
Upon the places high:
How are the Mighty fall'n down
In Gath this never cry,
Nor tell't in streets of Askelon,
lest Philistines rejoice;
Lest Daughters of the Uncircumcis'd, make a triumphant noise.

Ye Mountains high of Gilboa, let there be never Dew:

Let neither Rain, nor Field's again of Offering be on you.

For there the Shield o'th Mighty's loft, and vitely put to th' Foil,

The Shield of Saul, as he had not anointed been with Oil.

Jonathan's Bow turned not back from the Blood of the slain;

Nor from the mighty fat Saul's Sword returned not in vain.

Lovely and pleafant in their lives were Saul and Fonathan;

And in their death and latest breath was no division.

They swifter were than Eagles far, stronger than Lions stout:

Ye Daughters fair of Ifrael spare not for Saul to weep out.

Who clothed you in Scarlet, and with all that might delight;

Who put on Ornaments of Gold on your Apparel bright.

In the midst of the Fight how are the mighty fallen down,

O fonathan, how wast thou slain In the place of Renown!

O thou my Brother Jonathan, I am distrest for thee;

A pleasant, kind Companion thou hast been unto me.

Thy love to me was wonderful, past that of Women fair:

How are the mighty fall'n, and how are lost the Men of War!

Obelisk lyphen(-)AnIndex

I. A Comma is a Note of nvenient filence, or rather cathing time to that which cceeds, marked thus-

As for Example, Love's npanions be unquiet longings, ad comforts, faint discomforts pes, jealousies, carefulness.

2. A Semicolon is a paule mewhat longer than a omma, and thus noted-; Examples, Her witty perasion had wise answers; ber quence recompensed with eeines; ber ibreainings relted with disdain.

3. A Colon is a middle distinction between a Comma, and a full stop in the middle of a Sentence, mark-

Example, If I speak nothing I choak my self, and am in no way of relief: If simply negletted: If confused not understood: If I express any thing very lively of what I truly feel, this is a token, for sooth, my thoughts are too much at lielure:

4. A Period is a perfect or Full-point, to put at the end of a compleat Sentence, marked thus -.

Example. Lines cannot blush, so as Modesty admits a freedom to my Pen, which would be taken immodestly being delivered by the Tongue,

5. A Note of Exclamation or Admiration is thus noted-!

Example. Oh endless endeavours! O vain glorious ignorance!

6. A Note of Interrogation thus-?

Example, What final I do ? Whisher shall I flee? Whom that shall I blame? what shall retend?

7. A Parenthelis is ashutting a Sentence between two half Moons, which not with standing, the Discourse remains intire, noted thus — ()

Example. Tell me ingenuously, (if there be any Ingenuity in you) whether you did not know it.

8. Index thus , is to Moral Precepts and Instructions for Youth, which me also ferve for Copies to write out.

A Wife Man ought to be content, though poor,

Be well advis'd and wary Counsel take,

E're thou dost any Action undertake.

For he that knows thy purpose best prevents.

Defend the Truth, for that who will not die,

A Coward is, and gives himself the Lye. Ever thy Credit keep, 'tis quickly gone, Fly Drunkennels, whose vile Incon inence, Takes away both Reason and the Sense.

Grateful unto thy Friends be, so thou'lt gain

Their second help, if thou shouldst need again. Hear much, but little speak: a Wise Man fears,

And will not use his Tongue so much as Ears.

Judge not between two Friends, but rather see

If thou can't bring them friendly to agree.

Keep thy felf humble, Pride hath ruined many,
The proud Man's feldom well beloved of any.

Live well, and then how foon soe'er thou die.

Thou art of age to claim Eternity.

Make spare in Youth, lest Age should find thee poor, When time is past, and thou canst spare no more.

Prize, Wisdom, and then all the World is thine.

Grasp not for Honour, will no blazing Glory, For these will perish in an Ages Story.

How feeming great is he how truly little!

How feeming great is he, how truly little! In loving God, if I neglect my Neighbour,

My Zeal has lost it's proof, and I my labour.

Knowledge when Wisdom is too weak to guide her,
Is like an head-strong Horse that throws his Rider.

ord give me Wisdom to direct my ways; I beg not riches, nor yet length of days.

My life's a Flower, the time it hath to last, Is mix'd with Frost, and shook with every blast. Nor House, nor Land, nor measur'd heaps of Wealth,

Can render to a dying Man his Health Our Life on Earth is like a thread of Flax,

That all may touch, and being touch'd it cracks.

Of Great Letters.

Great Letters or Capitals, are of use, either to begin Sentences or Proper Names, or else of some things that are remarkable: And some very remarkable Sentences are written all in Capitals, as in Zachary. HOLINESS TO THE LORD. In Jeremiah, THE LORD OUR RIGHT-EOUSNESS. In Revelations, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And so in several other places. They do also serve to begin Titles of Books, as the HOLY BIBLE, or the NEW TESTAMENT; or to Divide Books, as THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS. Capital Letters begin Sentences; as Our Father which art in Heaven, &c. and I believe in God the Father, &c. As also proper Names of Men, as Adam, Moses, David, Jesus, Peter, John, Matthew, Lake, Charles, Apollo, &c.

Great Letters are also used in noting the proper Names of Countrys, Cities, Towns, Arts, Sciences, Dignities, Offices, Days, Months, Winds, Places, Rivers; as for Example, A-sa, Africa, Europe, America, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Lent, North, South, East, West, Whitehall, Hampton, Greenwich, Thames, Severn, Tyber, Po.

And every Book, Chapter, Section and Paragraph must begin with a great Letter, as also after a Period or full Stop.

Also when the words of another are quoted, they ought to begin with a great Letter, as Gen. 42. 32. And the man, the Lord of the Country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that you are true men, &c.

Also in Poetry, every line is usually begun with a great Letter, tho the former line ended in the middle of a sen-

Having learned to know the Figures and Marks whereby Numbers are express, the next thing that is necessary is, how to make use of them in the wayof Tradeor Business, to which end we must know all numbers are express by these Characters, 1,2,3,45,6,7,8,9,0; which last Cypher signifies nothing of it self, but serves to fill up the number of places: & therefore every Figure hath a double value, one single and certain, and the other uncertain according as it is plac'd.

Now, because it is not intended to give you a Body of Arithmetick, I thall only shew how to cast up a small Sum: as suppose you have received

If you would know what all these sums amount to, you must do thus; Go to the utmost row of Figures on the right hand, and say,

2 and 11 is 13, then make a point against 1, and carry 1 to the next, and lay, 1 I carried and 8 is 9, and 2 is 11, and

3 is 14; then make another point at 3, and carry 2, and say 2 and 6 is 8, which 8 set down at the bottom under the said figures, and say, 2 I carry from the pence, and 4 is 6, and 7 is 13, and 9 is 22; put a point at 9, and carry 2, and say 2 and 3 is 5, and 2 is 7, and 1 is 8, which 8 put under this row; then go to the next row, and say 1 pound I carry and 2 is 3, and 3 is 6, and 1 is 7; which put underneath, and then the Sum appears thus:

So that the Year contains 365 Days and 6 Hours, but the fix Hours are not reckon'd but only every fourth Year, and then a day is added to February, which then contains 20 days and that Year is called Leap-Year, and contains 366 Days,

The four Quarter days in the Year, are March 25, ealled Lady-day; June 24, called Midfummer-day; September 29, called Michaelmas-day; Desember 25, called Christmas-day.

The Country men do also sometimes divide the Year into sour other Quarters, that is, February 2, called Candlemas-day; May 1, called May-day; August 1, called Lammas; November 1, called All Saints-day.

Apothecarles use Marks or Figures to express Words, Weight, or Measure, as this: Re [Recipe] or take: ana, or a like quantity, q, a [pugit, or] half a handful; m. [manipulus] a handful; gr. a Grain,) a Scruple, a 3 Dram, an 3 Ounce, s [semissis] half a Pound, 15 [libra] a Pound, q. s. [quantum saik] a sufficient quantity, q. l. as much as you please.

Astronomers and Astrologers express the seven Planets and Signs by these Marks or Characters. The Planets are these: b Saturn, 4 Jupiter, & Mars, © Sol, & Venus, Mercurius, a Luna. The twelve Signs are these; Aries, & Taurus, II Gemini, a Cancer, & Leo, W Virgo, = Libra, M Scorpio, & Sagittarius, W Capricornus, Aquarius, X Pisces, The Sextile & Quadrat \(\mathbb{L}\), Trine \(\Delta\), Opposition \(\delta\), Conjunction \(\delta\).

Musicians distinguish their Notes by these Marks:

Semibrief, Minim, Crotchet.

In our English Writing there are also many Abbreviations that we make u e of, which we borrow from the Latin, as e. gr. exempli gratia, for example; and over our Accompts we commonly write 1. s. 4. q.

2 4 6 2

Which

Which is as much as (libra, solidi, denarii, quadrantes) Pounds, Shillings, Pence, Farthings, so that the sum is 10 pounds, sour shillings, six pence, two farthings, or halfpenny: So also we write, viz. (videlicet) to wit, or that is to say; p. (pagina) a page; S (sectio) section; v, (vide) see; i. e. (id est) that is; sc. (scilivet) that is to say; MS, Manuscript, or a written Book or Copy; R.S.S. (Quastio) Question; Obj. (Objectio) Objection; Sol. (solution) Solution or Answer.

There are also other Contractions of English Words which we often meet with; as Admrs Administrators, agt against, Bp Bishop, Comrs Commissioners, Dr Doctor, Esq. Esquire, Hbl Honourable, Hd Honoured, Id Lord, Lp Lordship, Lr Letter, Md Memorandum, Mr Master, Mrs Mistress, Mtie Majesty, bd obedient, pd paid, qr quarter, Sr Sir, St Saint, yn then; yt that, ye the, wn when wp worship, wll worshipful, yr your, 7ber September, 8ber October, 9ber November, 10ber December, Jan January, Feb February, Ap April, Aug August, Q Question A Answer, R Reason, U Use, Doct Doctrine, Xpian Christian & and, &c and so forth, Coll Colonel, Cap Captain, Lieut Lieutenant. We also oftentimes contract two words into one, as I'll I will, I'm for I am, t'other for the other, let's for let us, and many other.

We also contract the Names of Places, as Cant Canterbury, Oxon Oxford. Exon Exeter, Bucks Buckingham hire, Salop Shropshire, C. C. C. Corpus Christi College, Q. C. Queens College, D. C. Dean of Christ-Church: As also in the Names of Books, as Mat. Matthew, Cor. Corinthians, Col. Colossians, Rom. Romans, Rev. Revelations, Gen. Genesis, Chron. Chro-

The Scholars Prayer for the Morning.

MOft Holy and Eternal Lord, I thy most poor and unworthy Creature do give Thee most bumble and hearty Thanks, bat it hath pleased thy great Goodness to preserve me this night past, as well from all my Enemies, as from all other Casualties O dangers that poor mortal Creatures are subject to, and that thou haft given me sweet and pleasant Sleep, that I find my Body refreshed and comforted for performing the Duties of this day. It is thou that hast faid, If any Man want wisdow, let him ask it of God that giveth to all Men liberally, and repr asheth no man, and it shall be given un to him. I beseech Thee, breath into my Soul the Spirit of Understanding, that in my Childhood I may learn, and as I grow further in years, I may practife the study of those things only that are agreeable to thy Laws; grant that I may always carefully seek for the Pearls of true Knowledge: pour into me thy Holy Spirit, that all my travel and pains being bleftin study by Thee. I may be thankful to Thee: O loving Father, be thou my School-mafter to instruct me, and when I have attained to some measure of Gifts, let me not be proud in mine own conceit; but carry my felf humbly, knowing I have nothing but what I have received. Bless my dear Parents, my Kindred and Friends, and grant, that I may live so in this World to thy benour, that I may be a comfort to them, and may at last inherit the Kingdom prepared for all those that love Thee, through Jefus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for the Evening.

GRacious Lord God, and beavenly Father, I cannot cease, but I must cry unto thee for Mercy, because my Sins cry out against me for Justice, how shall I address my self to thee, but with the Publican, I must stand and admire thy Goodness toward me, in that thou hast kept me this day past from being consumed or brought to nought: For Lord, what is Man or the Son of Man that thou regardest him! For the more days pass over my head, the more Sins and Imquities I heap up against thee. O blessed Father, let thy Son's Blood wash me, and cleanse me from all my Impurities, and from all the stains of Sin that are upon me; own me as thy Child, and shadow me with thy Wings, that I may sately take my rest in thy Protection this Night, that I may behold the next day with comfort, and may serve in it, and endeavour to grow up more and more in Learning and true Knowledge. Bless my Parents, Kindred, Friends and Relations; and grant, that when they and I have past our Pilgrimage here, we may all attain to thy heavenly Kingdom: And all I beg in the Name of Jesus Christ, in whose must holy words I surther pray, Our Father, &c.

Short Graces, or Thanksgivings to be used before and after Meat, by Children and others.

Before MEAT.

SAnctifie, O Lord, unto us the use of these thy Creatures, of which by our Sins we have made our selves unworthy, and grant that the end of our Eating and Drinking may be to be better enabled to serve thee in our several places, through fe-sus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After MEAT.

MOST Grac ous God, as thou hast now filled our Bodies with thy good Creatures, so be pleased, we beseech thee, to feed our Souls, and to endue us with all Spiritual Blessings in Heavenly things, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, Amen.
